To a man whose qualities of friendliness, loyalty, and sportsmanship have won a place of high respect, deep admiration, and warm affection among the members of both the student body and faculty --

To one who is capable of turning out a state runner-up basketball team, and has set a wonderful example to all who have been under his leadership or in association with him in any way --

To one who is always willing to give of himself and his time to help others --

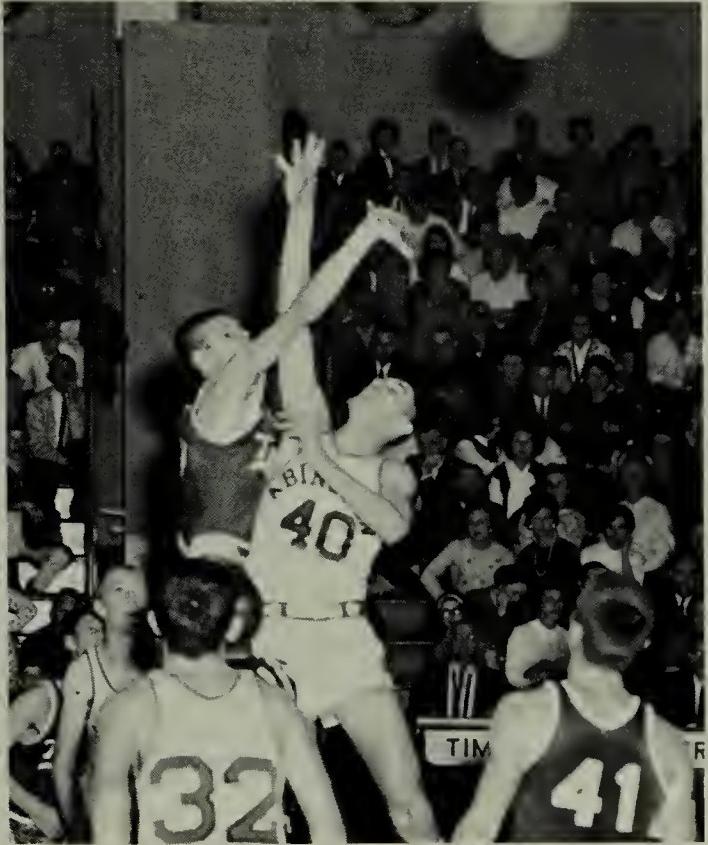

We the seniors of the Beacon staff do proudly and appreciatively dedicate this, the 1965 Beacon, to our teacher, coach, and friend, Mr. Wallace Nelson.

We Have Many Memories That Time Will Ne'er Erase . . .

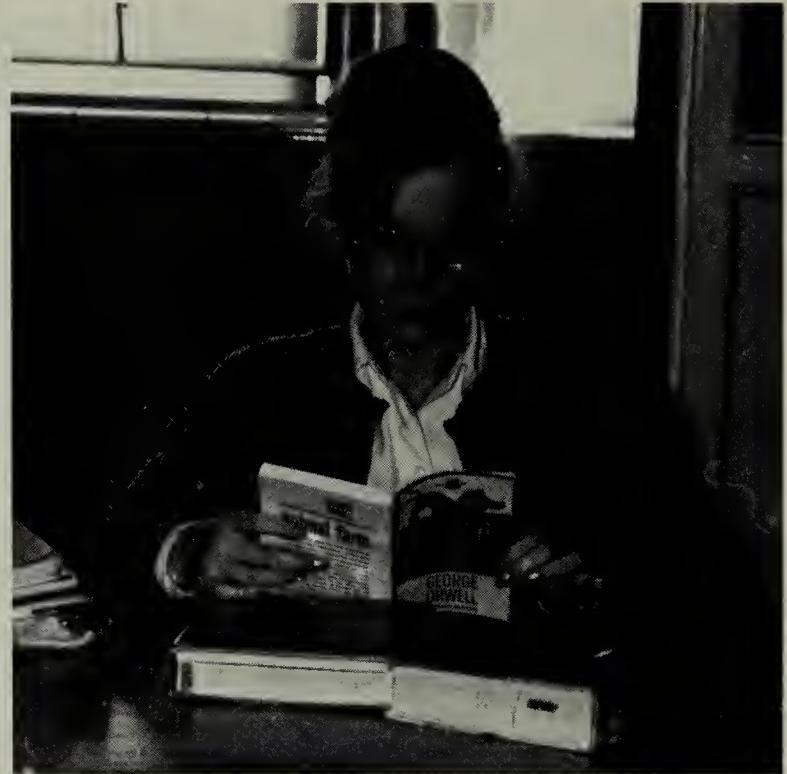

The Heartwarming Joy of a Happy, Smiling Face . . .

The Exuberant Excitement of the Cheering Crowd . . .

The Victories and Achievements of Which We Were So Proud . . .

The Long Hours of Studying and Tests to Tax Our Minds . . .

The Time When Competition Required Our Level Best . . .

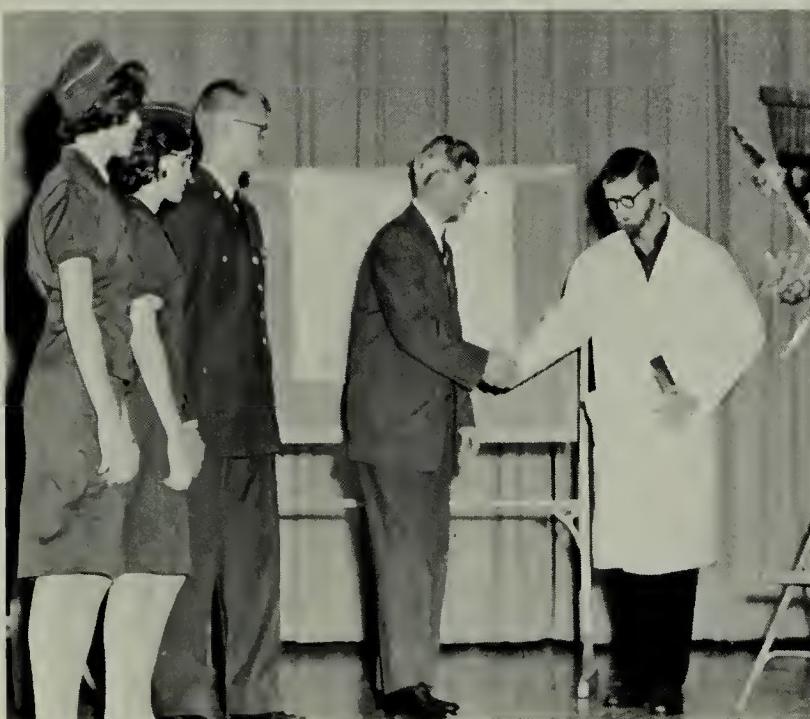

And Afterward the Peacefulness of a Soothing, Quiet Rest . . .

The Anxiety and Fears That Accompanied Our Little Cares . . .

That Unforgettable Time When K.G. First Did Err . . .

The Glorious Senior Play About That Loud Mouthed Rat . . .

Starring Handsome "Docky" and Lovely Kittye "Kat" . . .

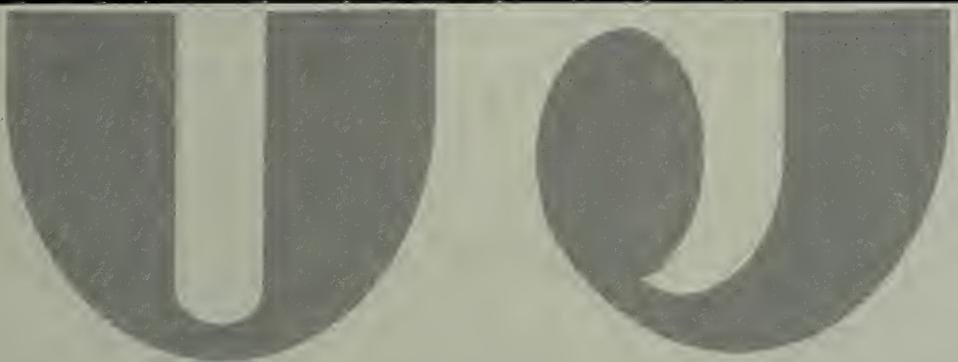

The High Ideals and Goals for Which We All Did Strive . . .

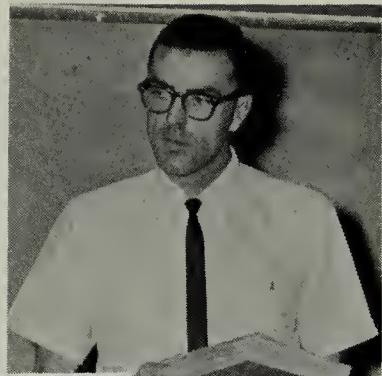

This Is the Year That Was — Nineteen Sixty-Five!

Banquet and Prom

Scarlett O'Hara and Rhett Butler would have felt at home at Martha Washington Inn May 21, at the Prom given for the graduating class by the Juniors.

The ballroom, with decorations following the "Gone With the Wind" theme, was transformed into Tara, complete with the mansion front, lawn, southern belles, and ivy covered columns.

Music was furnished by the Tempos, from Johnson City. Preceding the dance, the Seniors were entertained at a banquet at the Inn. A skit, "The Days of Laughter and Tears" was presented, using flashbacks of events of the past five years. A monologue was given by Vicki Butt, a group of girls sang a modified version of "Mountain Dew," and Nancy Naff gave a dramatic reading. The "Noblemen" played several numbers.

Falcon Band

Amidst their busy schedule, the Abingdon Falcon Band pauses for a picture. This year the band has participated in various festivals and activities. Tired feet, aching backs, and smiling faces -- these were our band members as they returned home from the Southeastern Band Festival, happy at receiving a 1, the highest rating given. They have appeared on WJHL-TV, marched in the annual Burley Tobacco Festival Parade, and in a parade honoring Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson and performed at the school football games they also played at pep rallies held throughout the year. Projects for raising money have included a bake sale, rummage sale, Gas Day, and Tag Day.

Pictures on the facing page include:

MIDDLE: Laura Clark, Head Majorette; Connie Orr, Head Majorette; Kathy Vance, Senior Majorette.

BOTTOM: Majorettes: Jean Ratcliff, Hannah Wycoff, Connie Orr, Mary E. Gunter, Kathy Vance, Laura Clark.

All-State Band — Chorus

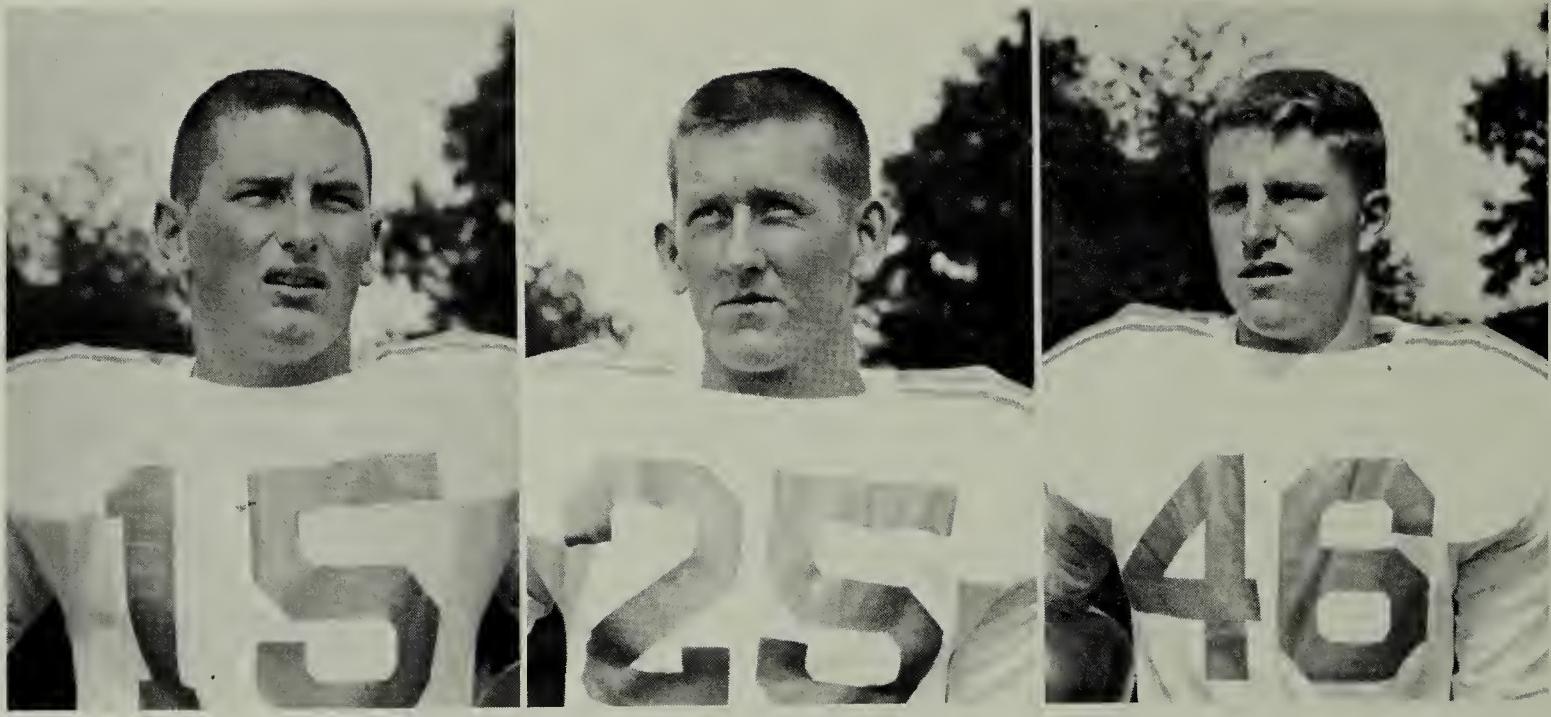

In eager anticipation, Walter Lindsey, Jerry Davis, Sandra Blair, Jeanne Austin, Larry Crane, Laura Clark, Roger Denny, Nancy Naff, Julia Ramsey, Mack Wagner, Doug Raines, and John Smalling plan their trip to Graham at Bluefield for All-State Chorus West.

Sixty-five was "the year that was" with Falcon baseball. The team compiled a 9-3-1 record and came home with the championship of the newly formed District VI.

Baseball got off to a late start due to the extension of basketball for tournament practice; but once underway, the Falcons proved strong, and strengthened as the season progressed.

Billy Yeates, "Buddy" Mitchell, Leon Prater, and Jimmy Gregory handled the pitching chores for the Falcons in top-notch fashion. Harold McCall and Leon Prater compiled the highest batting averages, ranking fifth and sixth in the district.

Don Wood and Jerry Mink served as team managers and Paul Clark assisted Coach Mathews.

The Falcons of '65 did a fine job of playing our national sport.

FEATURES

Homecoming Queen and Court

The candidates for Homecoming Queen are nominated by the members of the football team and the queen is elected by the team. The court participates in a parade to the football field before the game, appears at half time, and the queen is crowned at the Homecoming Dance after the game.
(CLOCKWISE) Jayne Woolwine, Queen; Becky Powers, Judy Wilson; Laura Clark, and Kitty Easterly.

The Mr. and Miss Abingdon High School contest was sponsored for the first time this year by the Beacon Staff. A committee of teachers nominated six Senior boys and six Senior girls. From this group the student body elected Mr. and Miss Abingdon High School.

For the past five years at A. H. S., one boy has stood out on the football field, on the basketball court, in track, on the baseball field, in music, in forensics, and in clubs. He has displayed outstanding qualities of leadership working to accomplish all that is humanly possible for one school. He has become a symbol of the spirit and aims of Abingdon High School. Therefore it is fitting that James Gail Rutledge be the first Mr. Abingdon High School.

Seldom in life does one meet a person with the character, personality, good sportsmanship, intellectuality, and popularity of this girl. She has been a friend and acquaintance of all the students at A. H. S. As a class and club leader, cheerleader, and editor, she has indeed "reached up to the Sky." Therefore it is an honor and distinction to name Judith Anne Blevins the first Miss Abingdon High School.

Opportunities Like

WAITING FOR YOU

The inventions of Thomas Edison have affected the lives of people everywhere. They have created entire industries — ours, for example.

Under America's Free Enterprise system, inventive people like Edison can expect special compensations — profit, honor and satisfaction.

The hope of attaining such rewards has been one of our nation's greatest incentives to progress. It is a goal that prods imaginative minds in their quests for new products and methods.

Not everyone can be a Thomas Edison. However, every trained, dedicated graduate can anticipate a full measure of our society's rewards. All it takes is a willingness to work harder and contribute more.
